Legal Fees

for

Charter School Legal Counsel

Deborah Dyson provides affordable legal counsel services to charter schools. Instead of hourly fees, which are unpredictable to the charter school, fixed fees are determined in advance of any project. Deborah Dyson sends a proposal for the principal/executive director and/or board of directors to consider so that everyone understands the issues, the costs, the responsibilities of each, and the timeline. The charter school can determine if these services fit within its budget. Often alternatives can be considered as part of the proposal.

Fixed fees are also set for legal advice that can be answered by means of a telephone call, e-mail response or meeting.

Deborah Dyson offers these legal counsel services for each fiscal year (July-June) for an annual fee. In addition to being legal counsel, this annual fee means that she will act as the registered agent for the nonprofit corporation.

A new client is asked to pay a one-time start-up fee. This start-up fee covers Deborah's review of the charter school's essential legal documents.
