Legal Fees

for

Nonprofit Corporation Legal Counsel

Deborah Dyson provides affordable legal counsel services to nonprofit, tax-exempt organizations. Instead of hourly fees, which are unpredictable to the nonprofit organization, fixed fees are determined in advance of any project. Deborah Dyson sends a proposal for the principal/executive director and/or board of directors to consider so that everyone understands the issues, the costs, the responsibilities of each, and the time-line. The nonprofit organization can determine if these services fit within its budget. Often alternatives can be considered as part of the proposal.

Fixed fees are also set for legal advice that can be answered by means of a telephone call, e-mail response or meeting.
